

ANDREA GAUDIO
PARTNER

Andrea Gaudio graduated with honours from the Catholic University of the Sacred Heart in Milan.

He has been enrolled in the Milan Bar Association since 2006.

From June 2020, he began to collaborate with Pistochini Avvocati Studio Legale, after having collaborated with Studio Legale Crippa Pistochini since 2016.

From January 2021 he is Partner of the Law Firm.

He has gained significant experience in specialised areas of criminal corporate law, in particular public administration, environment, tax and property crimes. Furthermore, he also deals with all the main issues concerning occupational health and safety and the administrative liability of legal persons. He has also held seminars at Milan's Bicocca University and at the Law Specialisation School of Milan's Bocconi University on the protection of the environment. He works and handles correspondence in Italian and English.