

FRANCESCA GELLI
TRAINEE

In 2021, Francesca Gelli graduated in Law with honours from Alma Mater Studiorum - University of Bologna, defending a thesis on criminal procedure entitled "Autonomy and interference between criminal and personal preventive proceedings: considerations on evidence" (supervisor: Prof. Silvia Renzetti).

In 2021, she completed an internship at the Committee on Social Affairs, Health and Sustainable Development of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe in Strasbourg. She developed an excellent command of the English language also through internships at Turner Broadcasting System and NBCUniversal in London. Since February 2022, she began to collaborate with Pistochini Avvocati Studio Legale as a trainee lawyer.

Languages spoken: Italian, English and Spanish.